Note: The progress of the lessons depends on the level of the students inside the class.

WHAT CAN I LEARN?

The student can strengthen his/her choice of words in terms of describing specific things. He/She can build up greater expressions and phrases that are commonly used to compare two things. He/she can enhance his/her ability to communicate with other people as he/she gains a better understanding about numbers, multi-word verbs, comparatives, and superlatives as well. Also, the student can now handle conversations about jobs, businesses, companies, and study problems with much confidence as he/she masters the skill of listening for reaction. In addition, fostering the student's ability to utilize the learned expressions and vocabularies will further deepen his/her understanding about complex sentence structure.

SELF STUDY TIPS

Train your ear by listening to English spoken at normal speed, even if you don't understand everything. Also practice listening without seeing things written down and don't be afraid to listen to things several times to catch any interesting or unusual vocabulary in there.
