Monday	Continuation of Unit 8 (Pages 155-160)
Tuesday	Review and Assessment

Note: The progress of the lessons depends on the level of the students inside the class.

WHAT CAN I LEARN?

In order to develop the student's critical thinking skills, he/she will practice exploring and analyzing the pros and cons of different issues. With this, it is of the essence for him/her to ask for another person's opinion using the expressions provided in this unit. Moreover, so as to further expand his/her vocabulary bank, the use of prefixes (e.g. com-, con-, dis-, il-, im-, in, ir-, and more) will be tackled to enable him/her to guess the meanings of unfamiliar words. He/She will master the use of modals of possibility and probability as well as he/she talks about things that are probably true, necessary, or otherwise. These will allow him/her to hedge especially if he/she is not sure about something and if he/she does not want to sound too strong. The student will then be able to incorporate what he/she has learned as he/she presents and speaks about the benefits of art education at an appropriate speed to help the audience understand him/her more easily.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES

Asking Follow-up Questions
Dialogue: Hedging
Discussing Future Plans
Presenting Travel Plans
Debate
Listening: Cause and Effect
