WHAT CAN I LEARN?

The student will be able to support his/her argument through the use of reported speech and proper citing of sources. This way, he/she will know how to recognize bias at the same time. He/She will be equipped with skills necessary in answering questions effectively using facts and figures. He/She will also be able to utilize T-chart to take notes from listening passages and short articles that tackle about global issues, which can aid the student in improving his/her reading comprehension and vocabulary bank. He/she can also express his/her ideas fluently by using collocations and appropriate linking of sounds. The student will deliver a report effectively that will allow him/her to enhance his/her critical thinking skills.
