Note: The progress of the lessons depends on the level of the students inside the class.

WHAT CAN I LEARN?

The student will learn how to develop and present a new idea after gathering information, analyzing, problem solving and decision making. He/she will also be able to identify facts from opinions through noticing word or phrase markers. For this week, the student will also be able to enrich his/her vocabulary with some idioms and expressions useful for informal situations. He/she will also learn how noun clauses can help combine two clauses showing connection in ideas and how conditional modals could express being affirmative or negative. For the speaking discussions, the student will understand when to use formal and informal language. Moreover, the student will be able to familiarize himself/herself with developing marketing presentation for varying audience.

SELF STUDY TIPS

If books in English are too difficult at first, start with blogs. Find a blog on a topic you enjoy and start reading something short every day. Bring some new words/phrases with you to share with others so that they can start using them too!
